

Facts for Weak Women

Nine-tenths of all the sickness of women is due to some derangement or disease of the organs distinctly feminine. Such sickness can be cured—is cured every day by

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

It Makes Weak Women Strong.

It acts directly on the organs affected and is at the same time a general restorative tonic for the whole system. It cures female complaint right in the privacy of home. It makes unnecessary the disagreeable questioning, examinations and local treatment so universally insisted upon by doctors, and so obnoxious to every modest woman.

We shall not particularize here as to the symptoms of these peculiar affections incident to women, but those wanting full information as to their symptoms and means of positive cure are referred to the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser—1008 pages, newly revised and up-to-date Edition, sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only; or, in cloth binding for $1.00.

LAYMEN HEAR THE REPORT

The ideal plan. 6. Many appeals for mission have been undertaken in sundry directions. Missionaries are now being supported by many individuals, equipment furnished, and other interest of a substantial kind shown by our men as never before.

7. Scores of pastors have been relieved of financial burdens by their leaders and committees of laymen in individual churches.

8. A growing desire is shown by official members of churches, to make the assessments the very minimum of amounts raised and to go beyond it.

9. In a number of cases, abandoned circuit churches have been revived and made self-sustaining.

10. Some records show that $2 per member for missions has been reached and in some cases much overtopped.

11. The actual amount of money raised for missions during the last two years as a direct result of the laymen's movement cannot yet be tabulated but the aggregate is large and that which has gone into regular channels, as inspired by the movement, is much larger.

12. Numbers of helpful lay conferences have been held in stations and on circuits, which have been attended by many thousands of laymen with inspiring results.

13. Christian liberality has very substantially increased in some localities. One prominent conference shows the largest gains in its history since the inauguration of the laymen's missionary movement.

14. A great body of Southern Methodist physicians has become deeply interested in the medical mission work of that church, and are contributing of their means to promote this important part of its service.

Under the head of recommendations we would suggest:

1. The national laymen's campaign in about seventy-five cities of the country is having hearty sympathy and support by the men of our church and we earnestly urge a continuance of the same at every point possible.

2. The key to the highest success of the laymen's missionary movement is in the hands of the individual church leader and his missionary committee. A general quickening of the missionary spirit is very manifest, wherever the church has taken hold of the movement with anything like real earnestness. May we not therefore ask, with all seriousness, of our presiding elders and pastors everywhere in our connection, help us to establish the work in every church and where a leader or committee is not now elected, that such be done at once and put the work on trial for a demonstration of its usefulness and genuine helpfulness to the pastor and church.

In view of the fact that the Laymen's Missionary Movement has risen since our last general conference, we recommend that some suitable memorial be sent that law-making body, suggesting that a proper recognition be made of this branch of work in the church and wisely correlated so that its efficiency may be best conserved and augmented. Respectfully submitted, J. R. PEPPER, President.

The members of the central and executive committees held a banquet at the Southland hotel at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The time was taken up by a formal discussion of private matters pertaining to the work and its advancement. After the dinner it was announced that everything was of a private nature and there was nothing to be given out regarding the matters discussed.

THE WILLARD MEMORIAL.

And Medal Contest Was Held Sunday Afternoon.

A good audience assembled in the Central Christian church Sunday afternoon for the Willard Memorial service and medal contest.

After prayer by Judge Elder, Mrs. Wm. Pierson read an excellent paper on the life and work of Miss Willard. Next came readings by four girls contesting for a silver medal which was won by Nona Cantrell. The medal was presented by Rev. Clinton Lockhart of Waco. He was one of the judges, the others being Mrs. Wm. Pierson and Mrs. W. B. Hamilton.

While the judges were out little Elsie Massey, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Massey, recited a short selection in a sweet childish way. She was heartily applauded.

The audience rose and sang "America" with Justin Hurt at the organ and Roy Pate as leader.

A free will offering was then called for by Judge Elder to be used in furthering the medal and for swelling the Willard memorial fund. This fund was used last year to employ a temporary missionary at Ellis Island to forward the interests of the W. C. T. U. in twenty-four states and Alaska, the canal zone and the Philippines.

DEATH OF MRS. TIMMONS.

Passed Away Quietly Sunday Evening After a Short Illness.

At 7:08 Sunday evening Mrs. Virginia Timmons died at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. H. Mitchell, after a short illness. The end had been anticipated during the day and when the summons came she passed peacefully away surrounded by her loving husband, mother and sisters, and in her death one of the sweetest and most lovable characters of the city left earthly scenes for the glories of the other world.

Virginia Mitchell, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Mitchell, was born in Walker County, Georgia, Feb. 1, 1879. At the age of ten years she joined the Baptist church at Chattanooga, Tenn., at the same time with her brother Jesse, their father, Rev. A. H. Mitchell, being pastor of the church. The family came to Texas fifteen years ago, and Mrs. Timmons was an efficient worker in church and Sunday school, teaching a class here for several years. She attended Barlow and Baylor colleges and taught two years in the public schools here. Later she taught at Holly and there met Prof. Timmons to whom she was married August 26, 1905, at the home of her parents here. Mr. and Mrs. Timmons came here to attend the funeral of her father. Last week her father died and now she has gone to her rest.

The funeral exercises were held in the First Baptist church conducted by Rev. E. L. Compere assisted by Rev. W. T. Hillman. Mrs. Compere made an affecting address, and Dr. W. C. Moody also made some remarks as one who knew her best after her parents.

Witnesses T. A. Smith, W. M. McBride, J. F. Nichols, W. L. Harrison, J. A. Mattox and F. V. Rado acted as honorary pall bearers from the local club of which Mrs. Timmons was formerly a member, and the actual pall bearers were Messrs. C. W. Gee, H. G. Campbell, W. H. James, W. M. McBride, W. A. Fraser and T. P. Bethell. Burial was in East Mount cemetery.

Mrs. Timmons was a most lovable character, winning friends by her sweet ways and amiable disposition, and her death is sincerely mourned by all who knew her, and the Herald joins in the general feeling of sympathy toward the family.

GOLDSBORO HEARD FROM

A Lady Who Lives in Goldsboro Joins in the Chorus of Praise for Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Goldsboro, N. C.—"A physician treated me for many distressing symptoms," writes Mrs. Ella A. Smith, "but gave me no relief."

"I suffered with neuralgia around the heart and was troubled at times with my head. I had pain in my left side, bowels, left thigh, shoulders and arms."

"After taking Cardui, I am now well and can recommend it to other suffering women."

Just such doubtful symptoms, as those from which Mrs. Smith suffered, are the ones for which it will pay you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

It is at such times, when there is nothing to show, for certain, the real cause of the trouble, that you need a tonic to give the body strength to throw off the illness that evidently threatens.

Take Cardui, when you are ill, with the ailments of your sex. Take Cardui as a tonic, to prevent illness, when you feel it coming.

Your druggist keeps it.

N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for special booklet, "How to Choose the Right Tonic for Women," sent in plain wrapper on request.
